

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Reuben and Mary Ann Gall exchanged their wedding vows on August 16, 1954, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Reuben and Mary Ann gave life and love to four children: Deb, Greg, Cindy, and Gene, who in turn presented them with thirteen grandchildren; and,

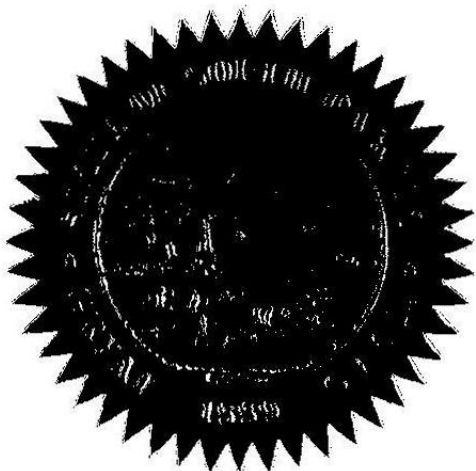

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Reuben and Mary Ann have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 16, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds
